Welcome

The purpose of this newsletter is to provide you with a resource for worthwhile information about events here at the Coffee Tree, new products and other topics that we feel are apt to be of interest.

It's about YOU. Its for YOU. We want to make this newsletter something you look forward to and use. To help us achieve this goal, we invite you to send us your comments and suggestions. Tell us what you want in it. What kinds of links you'd like to see what kind of articles you want to read. For example; articles on varieties of coffees and/or teas, favorite recipes of our customers, profiles of customers, musicians or authors..... Let your imagination run wild and drop us a line. We'll try to include things that seem to have a broad base of appeal.

Check our website www.coffeetreebnb.com It is relatively new and definitely a work in progress but in it you'll find a calendar of events, links to many of the musicians who play here and more. We appreciate comments or suggestions on it as well.

Fun Food & Friends

Finally! A group for guys who have reached that point in life where it's time to share some laughs, tell some stories, and just have some fun!

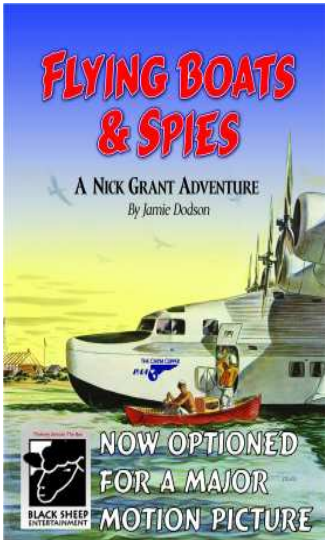

R.O.M.E.O.s meet at 6:30 pm on the second Thursday of each month for a special dinner prepared just for them. Dinner is $11.99 including salad, main course, coffee or tea and desert. The guys usually have a short program on a topic of general interest, tell some jokes and have a general bull session. No dues. No Rules. Just fun and fellowship with some other interesting guys.

The Coffee Tree Fiction Writers

Did you know a group of writers has been meeting here twice a month for the last couple of years? Yup, they have! The group has grown steadily and seems to be helping its members a great deal. Some of the authors are still working on their first book while others have published several.

Jaime Dobson is one, whose first book; Flying Boats & Spies was introduced here last year. Since then Sony Pictures has optioned the movie rights and hired a script writer. The next book of the Nick Grant adventure series, China Clipper, will be released this summer. As with the first book, Jaime will be here signing books when it comes out. It will be a great book signing. Last year Jaime brought models, cutaways and a wealth of information and visual aids to explain the clipper routes and the aircraft themselves. Date of signing will be posted here and on our website as soon as we know when the book will be off the presses. In the meantime get an autographed copy of Flying Boats & Spies here and whet your appetite for China Clipper by going to

Coffee Trivia

Dark roast coffees, while having bolder flavors than medium roasts, have less caffeine. The reason is that the longer a bean is roasted, the more of the caffeine is cooked out of it.

Espresso is a dark roast that is packed with that full bodied, in your face flavor but, like other dark roasts, carries less caffeine than the medium roasts you used to drink.

The State Tree of Kentucky is the Coffee Tree!

Saturday is Beignet Day!

Enjoy a taste of New Orleans every Saturday morning with our N'Awlins style Café au Lait with Chicory and a plate of fresh hot beignets.

Beignets are ready about 7:30 and we serve till we run out.

Based on customer flow that is usually between 10:30 and 11:30 AM. If you want a bunch to carry out, you can call ahead and place your order. 880-6464. $3.00 per order. 3 beignets per order. (They're hand cut and sometimes we stick in a 4th if they came out a lil smaller than usual.)
